ADDENDUM TO EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AND PARTNERSHIP TERM SHEET

This Addendum (“Addendum”) is entered into as of the date of last signature below, by and between SENTRAIS (the “Company”), Tiwana “Tye” Hayes (“CEO”), and Serendipity Equity Group, a company acting on behalf of Knox Phillips (collectively, the “Executive”), and supplements and amends the Executive Employment and Partnership Term Sheet dated March 31, 2026 (the “Term Sheet”).

WHEREAS, the parties agree that the following provisions shall be incorporated into the Term Sheet and shall be reflected in the definitive agreements to be drafted by Company Counsel. In the event of any conflict between this Addendum and the Term Sheet, this Addendum shall control.

SECTION 1. DEADLOCK RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

- 1.1 Applicability. This Section shall apply to any matter requiring the mutual written consent of both the CEO and the President under the Shared Governance provisions of Section 1 of the Term Sheet, including but not limited to the hiring or termination of C-suite executives, the annual operating plan and company objectives, and entry into new vertical markets.
- 1.2 Good-Faith Negotiation. If the CEO and the President are unable to reach mutual written consent on any Shared Governance matter within fifteen (15) business days after either party delivers written notice of the matter to the other (the “Initial Negotiation Period”), the parties shall escalate the matter to a dedicated good-faith meeting, to occur within five (5) business days following the expiration of the Initial Negotiation Period.
- 1.3 Mediation. If the matter remains unresolved following the meeting described in Section 1.2, either party may refer the dispute to non-binding mediation with a mutually agreed mediator. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator within ten (10) business days of referral, either party may request that JAMS or the American Arbitration Association appoint one. The cost of mediation shall be borne equally by the Company and the Executive.
- 1.4 Preservation of Status Quo. Pending resolution under this Section, the status quo shall be preserved and neither party shall take unilateral action with respect to the disputed matter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may take such unilateral action as is reasonably necessary to address an emergency or time-sensitive operational matter that, if left unaddressed, would cause material harm to the Company or its stakeholders, provided that the acting party provides prompt written notice to the other party of such action and the basis for the emergency.

- 1.5 Reservation of Authority. Nothing in this Section shall limit the CEO's authority over matters expressly reserved to the CEO under Section 1 of the Term Sheet, nor the President's authority over matters expressly reserved to the President.

SECTION 2. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

- 2.1 Non-Competition. During the Executive's employment with the Company and for a period of twelve (12) months following the Date of Termination (the "Restricted Period"), the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, whether as owner, partner, shareholder, officer, employee, consultant, or otherwise, engage in, own, manage, operate, or provide services to any business that competes with the Company's products, services, or technology within the State of Georgia and any state in which the Company derives more than ten percent (10%) of its annual revenues or has established material business operations as of the Date of Termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section shall restrict the Executive from engaging with business relationships, clients, or contacts that existed prior to the Executive's employment with the Company, provided the Executive does not use the Company's Confidential Information in connection therewith.
- 2.2 Non-Solicitation of Customers. During the Restricted Period, the Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, divert, or attempt to divert the business of any customer, prospective customer, vendor, or strategic partner of the Company with whom the Executive had material contact, or about whom the Executive obtained Confidential Information, during the twelve (12) months preceding the Date of Termination.

Reciprocally, during the Restricted Period, the Company and its officers, directors, and employees shall not directly or indirectly solicit, recruit, or hire any individual who was introduced to the Company by the Executive during the term of employment.

- 2.4 Non-Disparagement. During employment and at all times thereafter, the Executive shall not make, publish, or communicate any statement, written or oral, that disparages, defames, or otherwise damages the reputation, goodwill, or commercial interests of the Company, its officers, directors, employees, products, services, or affiliates. The Company agrees that its officers and directors shall not make similar disparaging statements about the Executive. Nothing in this Section shall prohibit (a) truthful testimony compelled by legal process, (b) communications with governmental agencies protected by law, or (c) disclosures required under applicable whistleblower protections.

The Executive shall hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and shall not, during employment or at any time thereafter, use or disclose such information for any purpose other than the performance of the Executive’s duties to the Company. Upon the Date of Termination or at any time upon the Company’s written request, the Executive shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information in any form, including all copies, notes, and derivative materials. This obligation shall survive indefinitely as to trade secrets and for a period of five (5) years following the Date of Termination as to all other Confidential Information. Reciprocally, the Company and its officers, directors, and employees shall hold in strict confidence any non-public personal, financial, or proprietary information disclosed by the Executive in connection with this Addendum or the Term Sheet and shall not use or disclose such information for any purpose other than performing the Company’s obligations hereunder, subject to the same survival periods set forth above.
- 2.6 Intellectual Property Assignment. The Executive hereby assigns and agrees to assign to the Company all right, title, and interest in and to any inventions, works of authorship, developments, improvements, trade secrets, ideas, and other intellectual property, whether or not patentable or copyrightable, that are conceived, created, or reduced to practice by the Executive, alone or with others, during the term of employment and that relate to the Company’s business, products, or services, or result from the use of the Company’s resources (collectively, “Work Product”). The Executive shall execute all documents and take all actions reasonably requested by the Company to perfect, register, or enforce its rights in any Work

Product. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the foregoing assignment does not apply to any inventions, works, or intellectual property developed entirely on the Executive's own time and resources, without the use of the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, or Confidential Information, and that do not relate to the Company's current or reasonably anticipated business ("Pre-Existing IP"). The Executive shall disclose to the Company any Pre-Existing IP relevant to the Executive's duties within thirty (30) days of the commencement of employment, and the Company shall hold such disclosure in strict confidence.

- 2.7 Enforcement and Reasonableness. Each party acknowledges that the obligations and restrictions set forth in this Section are reasonable in scope, duration, and geography, and are necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of both parties. The Company shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, in addition to any other remedies available at law or equity, without the requirement of posting a bond, to enforce the Executive's obligations under this Section. Reciprocally, the Executive shall likewise be entitled to seek injunctive relief, in addition to any other remedies at law or equity, to enforce the Company's obligations under this Addendum, including but not limited to the Company's confidentiality, non-disparagement, and indemnification obligations, without the requirement of posting a bond. If any provision of this Section is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, the court is authorized and requested to modify such provision to the minimum extent necessary to render it enforceable, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 3. GOVERNING LAW, VENUE, AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 3.1 Governing Law. This Addendum, the Term Sheet, and all definitive agreements arising therefrom shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. This governing law provision applies equally and mutually to all parties, including the Company and the Executive, with respect to all rights and obligations arising under this Addendum and the Term Sheet.
- 3.2 Exclusive Venue. The parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located in Fulton County, Georgia for any action arising out of or relating to this Addendum, the Term Sheet, or any definitive agreement, subject to Section 3.3 below.
- 3.3 Tiered Dispute Resolution. Except for claims seeking injunctive or equitable relief under Section 2 (which may be brought directly in court), any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of or relating to this Addendum, the Term Sheet, or any definitive agreement shall be resolved as follows:

3.4 Good-Faith Negotiation. The parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute through direct good-faith negotiation between the CEO and the Executive for a period of thirty (30) days following written notice of the dispute.

(a) Mediation. If the dispute remains unresolved, the parties shall submit the dispute to confidential mediation administered by JAMS or the American Arbitration Association in the State of Georgia. Each party shall bear its own costs of mediation, and the mediator's fees shall be shared equally.

(b) Binding Arbitration. If mediation fails to produce a resolution within sixty (60) days of referral, the dispute shall be finally resolved by binding arbitration before a single arbitrator under the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The Company shall advance all arbitration filing fees and administrative costs, which shall be shared equally by the parties; provided, however, that if the arbitrator determines that one party's claims or defenses were frivolous or brought in bad faith, the arbitrator may allocate such costs accordingly. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction.

3.5 Attorneys' Fees. In any action, arbitration, or proceeding to enforce or interpret this Addendum, the Term Sheet, or any definitive agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses from the non-prevailing party.

3.6 Waiver of Jury Trial. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each party irrevocably waives any right to trial by jury in any action arising out of or relating to this Addendum, the Term Sheet, or any definitive agreement.

Prior to any termination for Cause, the Company shall provide the Executive with written notice of the grounds constituting Cause. Where the grounds are subject to a cure period as set forth herein, the Executive shall have the full cure period to remedy the deficiency. Where the grounds are not subject to a cure period, the Executive shall have the right to appear before the Board of Directors within ten (10) business days of receipt of written notice to contest the Cause determination before such termination becomes effective. The Board shall consider the Executive's response in good faith before issuing a final determination.

- (a) The Executive's conviction of, or plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, any felony or any crime involving fraud, dishonesty, or moral turpitude;

- (e) The Executive's continued material failure to perform the duties of the Executive's position (other than due to Disability), which failure is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice from the Company specifying the deficiency in reasonable detail; or
- (f) The Executive's material breach of any restrictive covenant, confidentiality obligation, or fiduciary duty owed to the Company under this Addendum or any definitive agreement.

4.2 Good Reason. "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following without the Executive's prior written consent:

- 4.3 Good Reason Process. To invoke Good Reason, the Executive must: (i) provide written notice to the Company within ninety (90) days of the initial occurrence of the event constituting Good Reason, specifying in reasonable detail the grounds relied upon; (ii) allow the Company a cure period of thirty (30) days following receipt of such notice; and (iii) if the Company fails to cure the event within the cure period, resign in writing within ninety (90) days following the expiration of the cure period. Failure to comply with this process shall constitute a waiver of the Executive's right to claim Good Reason with respect to the event in question.

SECTION 5. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS INSURANCE; INDEMNIFICATION

- 5.1 D&O Insurance. The Company shall obtain and maintain, at its sole cost, directors and officers liability insurance ("D&O Insurance") with coverage limits of not less than $1,000,000.00 per occurrence and $2,000,000.00 in the aggregate, covering the Executive in the Executive's capacity as President, Chief Growth Officer, and Head of SENTRAIS Ventures. - 5.2 Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Executive to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law and the Company's governing documents against all claims, damages, losses, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or relating to the Executive's service as an officer, director, or agent of the Company, except to the extent such claims arise from the Executive's willful misconduct, gross negligence, or fraud.
- 5.3 Advancement of Expenses. The Company shall advance reasonable attorneys' fees and defense costs to the Executive upon receipt of an undertaking by the Executive to repay such amounts if it is ultimately determined that the Executive is not entitled to indemnification under this Section.
