

Font

The Fahkwang Medium font is part of the Adobe Fonts collection. To review the license for its usage, it is recommended to visit the official website at the following link: <https://fonts.adobe.com/fonts/fahkwang#licensing-section>

Using an unlicensed font can pose a number of risks for the client, including:

1. Legal consequences: Unauthorized use of the font may lead to copyright infringement and intellectual property violations, which can result in legal action and fines.
2. Quality and security: Unlicensed fonts may be susceptible to viruses and other malicious programs, which can negatively impact the client's computer system security.

For more detailed consultation on this matter, it is recommended to seek advice from a lawyer or copyright specialist.

*As the designer, I am not responsible for the purchase, non-purchase, or management of any required font licenses.
All responsibility for obtaining and maintaining proper licensing lies solely with the client.*
